MERGER OF THE INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH AND TRAINING INSTITUTE FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN AND THE UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT FUND FOR WOMEN

Algeria: draft resolution

Merger of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women and the United Nations Development Fund for Women

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 48/111 of 20 December 1993, in which the Assembly emphasized that the ultimate goal of restructuring should be to strengthen the programmes for the advancement of women and to enhance the efficiency of the work of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women and the United Nations Development Fund for Women, in function, structure and cost-effectiveness,

Recalling also that, in resolution 48/111, the Assembly requested, inter alia, the Secretary-General, through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in accordance with rule 157 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, to submit to the Economic and Social Council at its substantive session of 1994 a report on the proposed merger of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women and the United Nations Development Fund for Women,

 On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77.

Having considered the report of the Board of Trustees of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women on its fourteenth session, 1/

Having also considered the report of the Secretary-General pursuant to General Assembly resolution 48/111, 2/

Having considered the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions 3/ pursuant to paragraph 3 of General Assembly resolution 48/111, in which inter alia, the Committee recommended that the proposed merger be considered at the Fourth World Conference on Women: Action for Equality, Development and Peace, to be held in 1995,

Taking into consideration that, in paragraph 2 of resolution 48/111, the Assembly urged that the interaction between the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women, the United Nations Development Fund for Women, the Division for the Advancement of Women of the Secretariat, the Commission on the Status of Women and the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women be reviewed and rationalized within the context of ongoing efforts to revitalize the Economic and Social Council in pursuance of a stronger, more unified programme for the advancement of women,

Recognizing that the Commission on the Status of Women is the preparatory body for the Fourth World Conference on Women,

Taking into consideration that the upcoming Fourth World Conference on Women will study and make recommendations on the international institutional arrangements for the advancement of women within the United Nations system,

Emphasizing that the advancement of women should be an integral part of the economic and social development process within the main global issues, such as women's participation in the peace process, in national and international governance, sustainable development and gender equality,

Taking into account that the World Conference on Human Rights, in its Declaration and Programme of Action, 4/ reaffirmed the human rights of women as inalienable and an integral and indivisible part of universal human rights, and that the full and equal participation of women in political, civil, economic,

FULL PARTICIPATION BY THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY IN THE COMMISSION ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

Germany: draft decision

Full participation by the European Community in the Commission on Sustainable Development

The Economic and Social Council adopts the following modalities for full participation by the European Community in the Commission on Sustainable Development:

(a) The European Community, while not being a member of the Commission on Sustainable Development, shall be entitled to participate fully, within its areas of competence, in the work of the Commission or any subsidiary body thereof, in accordance with the present decision. Such full participation shall include the right to speak and the right of reply as well as the right to introduce proposals and amendments. Such full participation shall also include the right to raise as a point of order the fact that consultations are continuing among the Community and its member States on a matter on which a final decision is about to be made and for which the Community is the representative on the Commission in accordance with the present decision, provided that the right to raise this point of order shall not include the right to challenge the decision of the chairman in response to this point of order. The Community shall not have the right to vote but may submit proposals that shall be put to the vote if any member of the Commission so requests. The participation of the representatives of the Community in the Commission shall in no case entail an increase in the representation to which the member States of the Community would otherwise be entitled;

(b) Similar arrangements would apply, upon approval by the Council, to any other regional or subregional economic integration organization to which its member States have transferred competence over a range of matters within the purview of the Commission on Sustainable Development, including the authority to make decisions binding on its member States in respect of these matters;

(c) A footnote shall be added to rule 74 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Council (E/5975/Rev.1) that would read: "The participation of the European Community and other regional and subregional economic integration organizations in the Commission is governed by Economic and Social Council decision 1994/___".
